

Bequests

Tohono Chul is fortunate to benefit from dozens of generous estate gifts over the years. Members, staff, docents, volunteers and people who just love Tohono Chul have all made provision to leave a portion of their life savings through a bequest in their will. These gifts have been vital to the care of the grounds and the advancing the mission. If you wish to make your own private plans, the following language is provided for you as you work with your attorney, accountant or estate planning professional.
