IMPRESSIONS IN PLACE

Exhibition Dates: April 23 – August 9, 2020

DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES: MONDAY, MARCH 23, 2020

The Desert Southwest is marked with pictographs and petroglyphs; ancient images painted onto and carved into stone that describe man's place in the world. Mystifying and enlightening, they serve as timeless accounts toward the importance of place.

In the centuries since, history has seen artists erect elaborate monuments and cycles of painted works that celebrate place.

To the same effect, but on a smaller scale and at a more intimate level, artists have often lived in or traveled to a place that grounds them and speaks to them, with that place becoming a significant part of their person as well as an instrumental and inspirational component in their work.

IMPRESSIONS IN PLACE will investigate the human need, since the dawn of time, to leave behind a mark that records existence; a mark that establishes and documents a "sense of place" – a meaningful connectedness and an artistic awareness of how a place is impressed upon the artist and the artist is impressed upon the place.

Artists are asked to consider the place they have created for themselves here in the Sonoran Desert – outward or inward, urban or rural, in the studio or out in the field, etc. – and how the self is "impressed in place" and vice versa. The possibilities move back and forth and are endless. Artists from the region are invited to submit 2-dimensional or 3-dimensional works in any media for consideration in this curated exhibition.
