Tohono Chul is a private nonprofit 501(c)(3) botanical garden and nature preserve. We open our gardens to the public to celebrate special occasions and enjoy the beauty of the garden in addition to our mission of promoting the nature, art, and culture of the Sonoran Desert. Visitors have found Tohono Chul to be one of Tucson's most out-standing places to mark special occasions. Because of the distinctive atmosphere of the demonstration gardens, historic homes, and lush environment, we are a sought after location for weddings, receptions, and gatherings both large and small. No matter the time of year something is always in bloom and the setting is perfect for any activity.

Tohono Chul's showplace grounds and facilities offer many opportunities for those planning special activities. Whether the occasion is for 10 or 250, the remarkable ambiance of our gardens makes every moment memorable. No outside food is allowed except from a licensed bakery for a wedding cake.
